

Riverwalk Thai Restaurant receives Lava Pride Award

Joom and Tum Sanyachot along with many of their family members have been serving Lava with delicious Thai food since May 1998. Originally located in a small space at the edge of the river near the campground, people would line up out the door just to get a taste. Visitors and locals as well continue to enjoy this yummy food now located at the east end of Main Street and Hwy 30.

The authentic Thai food served at Riverwalk is specially prepared by Tum with secret family recipes passed on to her from her late mother Thongleiam Karasin, fondly known as "Grandma". Many family members have been involved and helped with the business over the years including Tum's sister Nang who personally delivers lots of fresh herbs from her garden in Florida. All dishes are prepared with fresh ingredients and no MSG. THANK YOU for the great food and service!
